9. Madelyne Lazarus v. City of Hallandale Beach, American Traffic Solutions, LLC, and ATS American Traffic Solutions, Inc. (Judge Cynthia Imperato) DOI – 12/6/09

On August 10, 2010, the City was served with Plaintiffs uncertified class action complaint for damages, declaratory, and injunctive relief against the City of Hallandale Beach and American Traffic Solutions (ATS). Plaintiff's complaint arises out of the City's Ordinance base red light program. The complaint alleges that the City's program is an invalid exercise of municipal power and that the City is otherwise preempted by the State legislature in this area of law. Although, the City Commission approved Plaintiff's settlement offer of up to thirty (30%) percent of the funds received from ordinance base program. The Florida Supreme Court has recently stricken the ordinance in Aventura and Orlando as unconstitutional. Counsel for the City of Aventura has requested a rehearing for clarification. It is unclear whether or not everyone who received a red light ticket is required to be refunded or just those that contested the ticket and were required to pay. We are waiting for the court's decision.

10. Phillip Mcenany, et al v. Ronald Beukers – (Judge Milly Rodriguez-Powell) DOI – 7/7/11

On October 6, 2011, Officer Beukers was served with Plaintiff's complaint for negligence. Plaintiff alleges Sgt. Beukers negligently struck Plaintiff causing personal injuries. At the time of the accident, Sgt. Beukers was driving a city owned take home vehicle. Sgt. Beukers is represented by counsel provided by his rider insurance carrier. On April 10, 2012, the City was served with Plaintiff's amended complaint. The City has filed its answer and affirmative defenses, a Motion to strike Count II of Plaintiffs' amended Complaint, and Motion to Dismiss Count IV of Plaintiffs' amended complaint. The City's Motion to Dismiss Count IV of the amended complaint was granted on July 23, 2012. On November 25, 2013, Plaintiff filed a motion for leave to amend to file a 3rd amended complaint, which the City opposed. On December 17, 2013, the Court granted the Plaintiff's motion to file a 3rd amended complaint. The City has filed its answer and affirmative defenses. Discovery and depositions continue. On May 4, 2015, Plaintiff's counsel filed a Motion to Withdraw as counsel, and the Court granted the Motion. The Plaintiff has retained new counsel. On September 16, 2015, the Court dismissed Plaintiff's case. On September 21, 2015, the Plaintiff filed an amended complaint.

Appellate Cases

18. Golden Horn Condominium Association, Inc. v. City of Hallandale Beach – (Appellate Division)

This appeal stems from a violation of the Florida Fire Prevention Code. The violation occurred at the Golden Horn Condominium located at 437 Golden Isles Drive, Hallandale Beach. The source of the violation is the condominium's fire alarm panel. Specifically, work was conducted on the fire alarm panel without securing the proper City permits.

19. TS&B, III, LLC v. City of Hallandale Beach (Appellate Division)

On December 17, 2014, Petitioner filed a Petition for Writ of Certiorari, by challenging the City's approval of the Regional Agency Center (RAC), and the notice to the Petitioner. The Writ of Cert appeal is filed in an abundance of caution to avoid a potential jurisdictional trap.

20. TS&B, III, LLC v. City of Hallandale Beach (Appellate Division)

On December 17, 2014, Petitioner filed Complaint for Declaratory Judgment and Injunctive Relief alleging that the three (3) ordinance passed on November 5, 2014 are inconsistent with the City's Comprehensive Plan, and seeks to enjoin the change in zoning as it applies to the Petitioner's subject property.

21. Eastwood Mobile Home Park, Inc. v. City of Hallandale Beach (Appellate Division)

On December 5, 2014, Petitioner filed its Motion to Stay Proceedings Pending Resolution of Local Administrative and Statutory Dispute Resolution Process, petitioning the Court to issue a writ of certiorari directed at the City Commissioners of Hallandale Beach, quashing Ordinance Numbers 2014-31, 2014-31, and 2014-32, all adopted on November 5, 2014. The case is settled.
