

City of Hallandale Beach Code of Ethics

Honesty

As we serve the City of Hallandale Beach, we are honest. We keep our word and lead by example. We base our actions on behalf of the City on the best available information. We go out of our way to build trust, and consider carefully the impact of our actions on public confidence. We maintain integrity at all times and consistently do what we believe is in the best of this community.

Accountability

As we serve the City of Hallandale Beach, we hold ourselves to high standards and are accountable to those we serve. We are willing to explain our actions and decisions, give and receive criticism, accept consequences, and engage in continuous improvement.

Respectful

As we serve the City of Hallandale Beach, we treat everyone with dignity and respect, the way we wish to be treated. We practice patience, courtesy, and civility even when we disagree. We maintain confidentiality, are sensitive about other people's time, and are careful with the public's property. We listen actively, engage in effective two-way communication, and demonstrate responsive public service.

Lawful

As we serve the City of Hallandale Beach, we comply with the laws of the nation, the laws of the City of Hallandale Beach, and the State of Florida, in the performance of our public duties. These laws include, but are not limited to: the United States and Florida constitutions; the Hallandale Beach Municipal Code; laws pertaining to conflicts of interest, financial disclosures, employer responsibilities, and open processes of government; and City ordinances and policies.
